western plateau.

There have been rains in the last twenty-four hours in New York and New England, the Florida peninsula and California. Fair weather was the rule elsewhere.

Temperatures have fallen in the Atlantic states and west of the Rocky mountains, and they have risen over the plains states and the great central valleys.

There were frosts yesterday morning in the region of the great lakes, the Ohio and Mississippi valleys as far south as western Tennessee and central Arkansas. Frost warnings were issued Saturday morning for the middle Atlantic and New England states, the upper Ohio valley and the lower lake region.

With the exception of local rains today and tomorrow in the Florida peninsula and tomorrow in uppe: Michigan the weather will be fair during the next forty-two hours in the states east of the Mississippi river.

The weather will be warmer today in the lower lake region, and tomorrow in the lower lake region, and tomorrow in the lower lake region, and tomorrow in the lower lake region, the Ohio valley. Tennessee and the east guif states, and tomorrow throughout the Atlantic states.

Storm warnings are displayed on On week days the Gallery is open as follows: Mondays, from 12 m. to 4 p.m., and other week days from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

School Authorities to Arrange Days on Which Pupils Will Bring in Offerings.

Complete details as to gathering old newspapers to assist in raising money or the playground fund will be an-

Then the boys and girls will be direct ed as to the time to bring papers they collect to their respective schools. Practically the only detail of impor ance which yet remains to be completed is the setting of the days for presenting the papers at the respective presenting the papers at the respective schools. Arrangements must be made, of course, whereby collections can be made in the most expeditious manner possible. This is a matter in which the supervising principals are expected to give valuable advict. Several hundred thousand newspapers are issued each week in Washington. This means thousands of pounds of old papers, which may be sold for money, which will buy playground equipment.
